

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
THURSDAY, : July 26, 1894.

Wheat for September delivery sold in Chicago Monday at 52½ cts. per bushel.

Seven persons were killed in a wreck at Queen City, Texas, Monday on the Texas and Pacific railroad.

All the potteries at East Liverpool, Ohio, after the longest strike ever on in the Ohio Valley have started up.

Herr Dowe is the inventor of a bullet-proof coat that is said to be impenetrable. The German government, however, has refused to adopt it.

Col. Ion B. Nall, of the Farmers Home Journal and president of the Kentucky Press Association, is a candidate for commissioner of agriculture.

The race for congress in the Seventh Kentucky district seems to have narrowed down to Breckinridge and Settle, as there is strong talk of pulling Owens off.

Charles Wilfred Mowbry, the English anarchist, made his first public appearance in this country on Monday. He addressed an audience of 500 at Clarendon Hall, New York.

The Lexington Press says the statement that Mr. Breckinridge has been dropped from the Masonic lodge to which he belongs in that city is absolutely without foundation.

Debs, having been badly downed in his American Railway Union strike, is working with his associates in jail to organize a new society to be called the American Labor Union, and include all laborers of whatever kind.

Two hundred residents of Pond Creek, Oklahoma, have been arrested for train wrecking by seven deputy marshals backed up by a large force of Federal soldiers. The citizens had prepared for an attack on one company of regulars, when re-enforcement arrived.

The new Central Christian church at Lexington, one of the finest church buildings in Kentucky, was dedicated Sunday with imposing ceremonies. The dedicatory address by Elder R. T. Matthews, the pastor, is said to have been one of the finest pieces of eloquence ever delivered from the pulpit of that city.

D. C. Lisle, brother of the lamented congressman, Hon. Marcus C. Lisle, has withdrawn from the race for the nomination to succeed his brother, and the field is clear for Judge W. M. Beckner. He will make a good running mate for Little Joe, and in our humble opinion they will run so far ahead of Mr. Hopkins that he will have to inquire "where is he at" when the polls close on November.

Magistrate John Riley, of the city of Lexington, is charged with taking a fee from his prisoners for whom he issued bail bonds. The Transcript of that city publishes a list comprising 217 names for whom these bail bonds were issued, and follows that with interviews with Riley's patrons, many of whom paid him a fee of from fifty cents to $1, and others who promised to pay but did not. The legal fee for issuing a bond in that city is 45 cents.

TESTIMONIALS FOR THE HERALD.

What Our Morgan County Friends Think of the Leading Paper.

Jos. W. Fugate says: "THE HERALD is a first-class paper and everybody should take it."

John McClain Jr. says: "THE HERALD is a number one paper, and every body should subscribe for it."

Dr. Samuel Davis, a very prominent citizen of this county, says: "THE HERALD is the best local paper published."

J. D. Phipps, a conspicuous candidate for the office of sheriff of Morgan county, says: "THE HERALD is the paper of papers."

M. P. Turner, candidate for surveyor, and has no opponent, which speaks well for him, says: "THE HERALD is a splendid paper."

W. T. Colvin, deputy clerk of Morgan county, says: "THE HERALD is out of sight. I'm always glad to hear from Hazel Green."

William M. Day, an independent candidate for jailor, in Morgan county, says: "THE HERALD is the paper that should come to every home, because it always brings news of much interest."

Elder J. A. Howard says: THE HERALD is booming in Morgan county. I have no trouble to get men to subscribe for it when I can get them to examine its columns of important news."

James Walsh, and his two most accomplished daughters Fannie and Katie, say: "THE HERALD is the most newsy paper published in Eastern Kentucky, and every body will be pleased when they read it."

Hon. W. B. Lykins, a prominent candidate for county judge of Morgan county, says: "THE HERALD is a most newsy paper, and is devoted to the good of the people in Eastern Kentucky, and every body should take it."

R. E. and J. T. Caudill, the two twin brothers who married the two twin sisters, the much accomplished daughters of Wm. Wells, a well-to-do farmer of Morgan county, says: "THE HERALD is a good paper and we enjoy reading it."

Rev. S. J. Adams, a very prominent candidate for jailor of Morgan county, and a man beloved by all who know him, says: "I am acquainted with THE HERALD and its most popular editor, and it is a very good production in the newspaper line and everybody is pleased with it."

D. G. Lacy, a prominent candidate for constable in the third magisterial district of Morgan county, and whose official career has made him a host of friends, says: "THE HERALD is the paper for the home circle—devoted to the circulation of all important news—and that it should be in every home."

THE OLD DOMINION.

T. J. Stephenson Tells About His Travels in That State.

TIP TOP, VA., July 12.

J. H. PIERATT: Under promise to write and give you the news from the long trip which I had in view when I last saw you. On the 4th of July I left my home on Lacy's creek to visit my birth place, and where the years of my boyhood were carelessly spent in old Virginia. On the fourth day, after riding some fifty miles a day, I landed at Doran where my sister, Mrs. Hattie Blankenship, lives. Next day I visited Richland and took dinner with J. S. Higginbotham, a brother in law of G. B. Swango, register of the land office. Mr. Higginbotham is U. S. commissioner, which office he holds through life, and is a young widower of 44, just in the bloom of youth and seemed to be very much pleased when I told him of such a nice young widow that oftentimes walks the streets of Hazel Green, and he said: "Gosh dang if I live I will drop her a few lines and send her my picture." Richland is one of the boom towns of the N. & W. extensions and bid fare for a thriving city. But owing to the recent financial condition of the country closed the glass factory, tube works, roller mills, mining, etc. Nothing of any enterprise is going on in this country. After a day or two of rest I started to visit relatives and friends, accompanied by my sister, whom I had not seen for thirteen years. On the second day I landed at J. H. Davidson's, an uncle of mine. I was surprised when I saw his wife with a young baby boy in her arms, although her head was in full bloom for the grave. Upon inquiry they told me that he found it in a rail pile near the railroad the last of March. When taken home it was almost frozen and could not cry. It was not more than an hour old when he found it. Has all the appearance of a smart child. They call him Moses. I will go from here to Bluefield, Pocahontas and other points along this line.

Enclose please find $2 for two years subscription to THE HERALD. Send it to Mrs. Sarah Davidson, Wittens Mills, Va., and send one to Mrs. Hattie Blankenship, Doran, Va. Respectfully,
T. J. Stephenson.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Grassy Creek Grist.

Cutting grass is the order of the day. Born, to the wife of W. T. Ward, a girl.

Willie Rose and wife, of Red river, visited relatives on Grassy Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Anna Roberson, of Pleasant Run, visited J. C. Havens and family Sunday and Monday.

Johnnie Barker and little son Elmer, of Stillwater, visited his father, Henry Barker, last Saturday and Sunday.

Several of the candidates spoke at this place last Thursday. There was quite a crowd attended the speaking, and had good order except a little drinking.

Bob Dennis, of Omer, was in this neighborhood last week on business, and we think he will take up the Carpenter's trade soon, as he talks in that direction.

Rev. A. B. Stamper and others will begin a protracted meeting at the Old Grassy church near this place on Friday before the first Sunday in September and everybody is invited to attend.

Henry Barker has been employed to teach at the Caskey school house near here. He will begin teaching about July 30th, and we think the trustees have been wise in their selection. Also, Miss Lulie Kash, of your town, began teaching at the Long school house Monday morning, and all say Miss Lulie is a splendid teacher.

Married, at the residence of Frank Lawson, Dave Lawson to Miss Emma Gibson; attendants Lee Rose and Lou Alice Havens. Rev. Matt Adams officiated. After the ceremony was performed all were invited to dinner and the table almost groaned beneath the weight of its burden of the good things of this life, and all wish to express their thanks to Mrs. Bet Rose for the elegant manner in which she waited on the table. After dinner was served the wedding party, consisting of Lee Rose and Lou Alice Havens, Mary Rose, Roena Gibson, Dave Lawson and Mrs. Emma Lawson, spent the rest of the day riding, and all seemed to enjoy themselves quite well.

CINDERELLA.

Ever Evolutions.
J. M. Pieratt is in Mt. Sterling on business.

Miss Myrtle Woolery is visiting in Harrison county.

Flem Burton, who has been out west awhile, has returned.

James Fugate will teach the school at Flat Gap, and commenced last Monday.

Elders J. A. Howard and James Fugate will preach at this place Sunday night, July 29.

We have recently had some heavy showers of rain which was badly needed in this locality.

A new mail route has been established between this place and Dan, a new post office in "Young Breathitt."

A wedding is being talked of, and it is said that there is a "Nickell" in it, but that is not enough money to induce me to give the particulars.

A letter just received from Elder J. A. Howard states that he has closed a series of meetings in the neighborhoods of Elk Fork and Spaw creek. The Christian church at Elk Fork, including officers and all but a few members, declared for Christian union, and voted against the annual meeting being held at that place as was heretofore arranged.

There was public speaking here last Saturday by the candidates for the various offices of this county, and politics is "just a bilin," and vote swapping is on a boom, some good (?) people are showing themselves in the matter. I would just as soon sell my vote outright as to be guilty of such dealing, for when a man votes against one man in order to get help for his pet, he is sacrificing principle, and is being "used," instead of voting his sentiments, and a true patriotic citizen cannot afford to do it. BLURT.

Wide awake school teachers should call at this office and purchase a supply of monthly school reports.
